Joanna: There are many K-POP fan meetings and concerts this summer. I MUST go to the BTS's fan meeting and Black Pink's concert!

William: I want to go to those, too, but the cheapest tickets will cost two thousand dollars each. I don't have four thousand dollars.

Tommy: The school is giving cash as an award for the top students in March. If you two study hard enough, that should help you a little. Mom and Dad will help you, too.

Joanna: I'm not sure if they will help...

William: Let's try to ask.

William: Mom, we really want to go to two concerts in the summer, but they will cost each of us four thousand dollars in total. We don't have enough money. Can you help us? We will do more housework...please?

Joanna: Please, Mom...

Mom: Well, we'll help

Joanna & William: Yeah!

Mom: Let me tell you first. Joanna, we can pay for the ticket if you help little Jimmy with his summer homework. You need to make sure he does it correctly. William, you need to feed our dogs and cats, clean their houses, and take the garbage out every night. How does that sound?

Joanna & William: Sure, Mom.

Tommy: See, I told you.

35-37

More and more young people like to spend their free time playing computer games or surfing the Net. Sometimes they use the cellphone in the dark. This will hurt their eyes badly. As a result, their eyes get worse day by day. How can they protect their eyes?

First, they should always use a cellphone in the light. Second, they need to keep a proper distance. Getting too close to or too far from the screen can hurt one's eyes. Third, they have to take a ten-minute break every hour and do some exercise. Last but not least, they can have an eye examination every year.

III 38-40

In my country, Thailand, our most popular festival is Songkran. It's our New Year festival. It always happens in April, and it's always a lot of fun. Everyone knows about this festival because you can throw water on other people! This brings good luck for the next year. You can buy delicious food on the street, like papaya or chicken with special sauce. Many people go back to their hometowns during Songkran. They want to spend time with their families. On the first day, they clean their house. On the second day, they play games with water. On the third day, they visit the temple and wash the Buddha statues. They use water with flowers in it, so the statues smell nice and fresh. Songkran is my favorite time of the year.
