I.

World Oceans Day is on the eighth of June. This idea came from Canada in 1992. On this day, people think about the important role of the ocean and the problems of pollution. Also, we should take action to protect it. Today, people in over 120 countries celebrate World Oceans Day in many different ways: beach/river clean-ups, art competitions, and festivals.

In the world, there is only one ocean. The ocean covers 70% of the Earth. Most of the plants and animals on Earth are from the ocean. It is the beginning and home of living life. It gives food to human beings, too. It also regulates the climate. However, the most serious problem now is plastic pollution. We should cut down on one-use plastic bags or bottles. It is the key to deal with the problem.

Each one of us counts on the ocean, even when you live in the high mountains or far away from the sea. It's time to do our best to help save it.

important 重要的 role 角色 pollution 汙染 protect 保護 competition 比賽 festival 節日 cover 覆蓋 human being 人類 regulate 調節 climate 氣候 serious 嚴重的 plastic 塑膠
deal with 處理 count on 依賴

31. What does it refer to(意指)?

(B) Live in the high mountains.
(C) Bring our own shopping bags.
(D) Go on a working holiday at the beach.
33. What do we know about World Oceans Day?
(A) It is on the eighth of July.
(B) It covers 70% of the Earth and gives us food.
(C) It is the beginning of most plants and animals.
(D) It reminds us of the importance of the ocean.

II.

Teachers and schools have tried many things to stop students cheating in exams. However, it is not possible to stop all students from cheating. A college used a way of making sure students keep their eyes only on their paper and not on those of students' around them. This college was getting students to wear anti-cheating hats during tests. The hats prevent students from being able to see around them and peeking at others' papers. They can focus only on their own test paper. Students are happy with the idea because they get to design and make their own hat.

Students made all kinds of weird and wonderful hats. They used cardboard boxes, egg cartons, and other recycled materials to create their hats. A professor said the hats were a "fun way" to make sure there was "honesty" in her tests. She added that the hats were great in keeping students focused. Many students finished their tests early and no one was caught cheating.

cheat 作弊 exam 考試 college 大學 anti-cheating 防作弊 prevent 預防 focus 集中 peek 偷看 weird 奇怪的 cardboard 硬紙板 carton 紙盒 recycled 回收的 material 材料
professor 教授 honesty 誠實

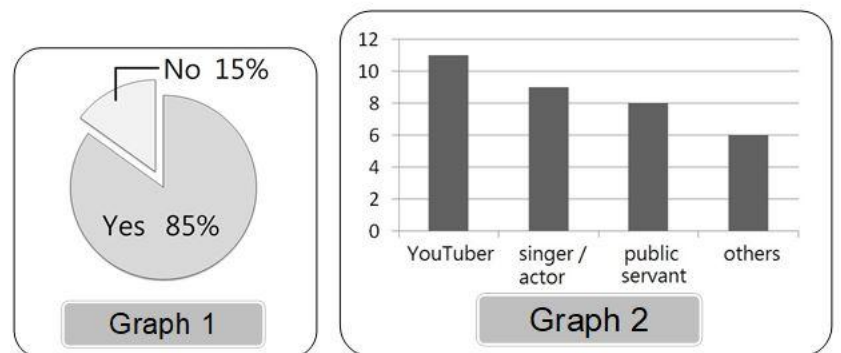

34. How did the students feel about making their own hats?
(A) Happy.
(B) Tired.
(C) Clear.
(D) Surprised.
35. Why did the students wear the hats during tests?
(A) They wanted to recycle the cardboard boxes.
(B) They didn't have enough money to buy hats.
(C) They should focus only on their test paper.
(D) They could finish their tests early.
36. Which is NOT true?
(A) Stopping all students from cheating is not easy.
(B) The students spent a lot of money on their hats.
(C) When wearing the hats, the students couldn't see other's paper.
(D) Both the professor and the students liked the idea of making anti-cheating hats.

III.

(Jenny is giving a report in front of the class.)

"Do you have your dream job?" We asked our classmates this question. We also asked the "yes" group, "What do you want to do in the future?"

Please look at the graphs. According to our study, 85% of our classmates have their dream jobs (see Graph 1). As for the kind of jobs (see Graph 2), eleven of our classmates want to be YouTubers, and nine want to be singers or actors. Eight of them want to become public servants. Six choose other kinds, like cooks, writers, or reporters.

As a result of our research, we found half of the class want to work in the entertainment business. They think those jobs are more interesting than others. That was a big surprise to us.

according to 根據 public servant 公務員 result 結果
research 研究 entertainment 娛樂 surprise 使人驚訝的事

37. What is the reading about?
(A) Different kinds of entertainment business jobs.
(B) The number of students in Jenny's class.
(C) Some popular dream jobs for teenagers.
(D) The result of Jenny's research.
38. What can we learn from Graph 1 and Graph 2?
(A) No one wants to be a public servant.
(B) There are thirty-four students in Jenny's class.
(C) A few students had no idea about their dream jobs.
(D) Most of Jenny's classmates want to be cooks in the future.
