Peter is a successful businessman. He makes millions of dollars every year and owns several nice houses in different cities. People sometimes ask him how he did it. He always answers, "Because of luck and my hard work." It's true that Peter has been lucky. His restaurants, movie theaters, and department stores bring him a lot of money. But Peter wouldn't be so successful without his hard work. He gets up at 5 o'clock in the morning and works over 12 hours every day, even on weekends. Peter also says, "You'll get lucky if you work hard."

- 44.() Is Peter a working-class person? Why? or Why not?
 Choose the best answer to meet the meaning of "working-class" from the lesson "She Is the Woman Who Wants the Public to Pay Attention to the Working-class People" in your textbook(教科書).
 (A) Yes. Because Peter works 12 hours every day.
 (B) No. Because Peter makes a lot of money from running(經營) many restaurants, theaters and department stores.
 (C) Yes. Because Peter works very hard.
 (D) No. Because Peter is a lucky man.
