The Man and His Two Wives

Once upon the time, men could have more than one wife. A mid-aged man had two wives. One is old, and the other is young. Both of them loved him very much, and each wife wanted the man to love herself. The man's hair was turning gray. The young wife did not like his gray hair because it made him look too old for her husband. Therefore, she picked out the white hairs every night. However, the elder wife wanted the man to look old so that she would not be mistaken for his mother. Every morning, she picked out as many black hairs as she could. A few days later, the man was shocked when he looked at the mirror. He found himself entirely bald!
