According to the news, it is not safe to eat out in Taiwan now. The dishonest businessmen used gutter oil to make cooking oil and sold it to more than 1,200 restaurants, schools and food processors. Gutter oil means recycled oil from restaurant waste and animal byproducts. Different kinds of food were tainted by the oil, such as instant noodles, snacks, cakes, dumplings, and bread. People are scared because it is harmful to our health. Luckily, doctors shared some tips. First, do not have snacks very often. Second, do not use oil from the same brand for a long time. Third, drink more water and exercise regularly. Finally, eat many kinds of vegetables and fruit. Having these habits can't eliminate gutter oil but can help us decrease the harm of it.
