七、閱讀測驗 (6%)

Mrs. Wang had two sons. One day, her younger son came and asked her for some money. "Why do you need the money?" "I want to buy some chocolate." "No, chocolate is bad for your teeth. Take these two apples and give one to your brother." One of the apples was much bigger than the other one, and the small boy liked apples a lot, so he kept the bigger one and gave the smaller one to his brother.

When the older brother saw his apple was much smaller than his brother's, he was not very happy. He said to his younger brother, "It's not good to take the bigger one for yourself. If Mom gave me the apples, I'd give you the bigger one." "I know you will," answered his younger brother. "That's why I took it."

1. Why DIDN'T Mrs. Wang give her younger son any money?
 - (A) She didn't have any money with her.
 - (B) She didn't want him to buy chocolate.
 - (C) Her older son just took away the money.
 - (D) He didn't give his brother the bigger apple, and she was not happy about it.
2. According to(根據) the reading, what does a good brother need to do when he takes a big apple and a small one?
 - (A) He needs to give the big one to his brother.
 - (B) He needs to eat them both.
 - (C) He needs to keep the big one.
 - (D) He doesn't need to give his brother any apples.
3. Which is true?
 - (A) The older brother finally got the bigger apple.
 - (B) Both the apples were big and sweet.
