F. Reading comprehension 閱讀測驗

After one month on the sea and two hours of trip by train, finally I arrived in London. The railway station was big and dark. I did not know the way to my hotel, so I asked a man. I spoke English carefully and clearly. The man, however, could not understand me. I repeated my questions three times and at last he understood and answered me, but I could not understand him. Then he spoke slowly but I still could not understand him. My teacher of English never spoke English like that! The man and I looked at each other and smiled. Then he said something and I understood it. "You'll soon learn English!" he said. I was confused. Didn't people in London speak English? English people understood each other, but I couldn't understand them!
