Dear Mike,

It is Monday afternoon in Los Angles. The weather is cool. I arrived here at 10:30 p.m. yesterday, October 12. When I got on the airplane in Tao-Yuan airport yesterday, you were taking the exam at school. I knew you couldn't answer the phone, so I didn't call you to say good-bye. This morning, I went to my new school. It is a nice school but I miss our school and our classmates in Taipei. We really had a wonderful time at Xin-Min. How was your test going? Hope you're doing fine. Please say "Hi!" for me to everyone.

Sincerely Yours,
John
