Dear Michael,

How are you there? I miss you so much. When I walk by our junior high school, I just think of you right away. Do you still remember that we used to play basketball or talk about sports like baseball, badminton, volleyball (排球), and so on after school? It was an interesting and sweet moment (時刻) for us, right?

Do you have any new friends in your new school in Taipei City? I think that the answer is positive because you are good at listening to people and always nice to others. Do you have a classmate to play basketball with in your free time? I have a new friend, Jason. We practice at the same park, Youth Park, every Sunday afternoon. He is really a good player. He shoots well and plays hard. I hope we three can play basketball together in the future. It will be great fun. Please tell me about your school life quickly after you read this letter. I am curious (好奇的) to know.

Your friend,
 Joe
